Clean your hands right before eating!

You washed your hands in the bathroom...

...but how many things did you touch before sitting down to lunch?

The most common way for an infection to get into a person is via their hands and then mouth. Using hand sanitizer immediately before eating helps prevent infections such as colds and the flu.